

The Holocaust

Fear drags us down,
The truth cuts deep,
Reality is shifting,
The holocaust is near.

Families torn apart,
Hearts ache and bleed,
Not knowing when this nightmare will end,
The holocaust is here.

Did we choose this?
Is it our fault?
So many questions when
The holocaust is here.

The testing,
The guns,
The man, the fears, for
The holocaust is here.

The deaths,
The pain,
The one alone we all blame,
The holocaust is here.

The torment,

For reasons we cannot help,

Punished for our genetics, and how our Mothers birthed us,

The holocaust is what we fear.
