

The Write On! / All Stories Competition

Last Updates: 25.06.2024

Open to new entries from Monday 1 July 2024.
Competition closes on Monday 23 September 2024.

Three First Prizes: Lucky Write On! readers can win a free 1-2-1 session with an editor-mentor to discuss their work and any questions they might have about writing and/or the publishing industry.

If you have an idea for a children's book – from picture book to Young Adult fiction, this is for you.

Aimed at underrepresented communities, All Stories are offering winners a free online session with a mentor to discuss book ideas, writing and any questions you might have. To enter, send in a paragraph detailing your book idea and a paragraph telling us a bit about yourself and why you should be considered for a free mentoring session.

Funded by Arts Council England, All Stories is a free mentorship and outreach programme for underrepresented children's and YA book writers. Please go to www.allstories.org.uk to find out more about their offer.

Pen to Print also provides an ongoing programme of free writing classes and workshops which we encourage you to take part in. Please go to pentoprint.org/events for details of the latest sessions available to support your writing.

How to Enter

Please read all the Rules and T&Cs below carefully.

In collaboration with our friends at All Stories we are offering three lucky Write On! readers a free one hour mentoring session with All Stories mentors.

Your email entry should be sent to us by Monday 23 September 2024, 5pm. Your email should include the idea for your book, your biography and pitch for why you should be considered for mentoring, this should be no longer than 500 words. Please also complete and entry form and attach this to your entry email.

You must be aged 18 or over.

Your work can be on any subject, but we reserve the right to reject entries on grounds of taste, decency and where the legality or morality of content is in question.
